

Our Own Apostles

Twelve terrific men of our parish have agreed to something new this year. They're offering a range of services to the highest bidders, and you'll hear each one auctioned off during the otherwise Silent Auction! Listen for the auctioneer, and look for the guys in (mostly donated) tuxedos. Here are some notes about each man's offer and the time each man will be sold:

Frank Wuco, 6:30 pm

Frank will provide a guest producer experience for two of his Saturday "Need to Know!" radio shows. A winning bid earns a station tour, a seat in the production booth, and even some time as an on-the-air sidekick along with regular producer Average Joe Weaver. This is for two Saturdays!

Rob Fisher, 6:40 pm

Rob's in the Knights of Columbus, where he works with the Columbian Squires and the youth committee. He's looking for several students, ages 10 to 100, who would like to learn basic and intermediate carpentry skills — from how to hold a hammer properly all the way to using a power saw. Pick a small project, and Rob will work on it with you for an afternoon.

Andrew Houle, 6:50 pm

Andrew, the St. Stephen Catholic School PE coach, figures a student you know might love filling in for him as "coach of the day." Take charge!

Jon DeCort, 7:10 pm

Jon and his wife, Amanda, will take three couples for an intriguing evening of dinner and a historic ghost walk through Ybor City.

Bobby Yevich, 7:20 pm

Bobby is willing to give some adults a little "no kids" time as he takes four children for an afternoon at our next Spring Jubilee. Armbands included!

Matt Shirina, 7:30 pm

Matt can make your Thanksgiving easier and tastier! Our renowned grillmaster will prepare two turkeys for delivery to your feast, one smoked and the other deep-fried.

George Weber, 7:40 pm

George is another guy ready to take the kids off your hands for awhile. He will host a mini sports camp for four children, and they choose the sports! Hot dogs and other refreshments included.

John Vaughan, 7:50 pm

John loves to drive, having logged a quarter-million miles in cars, trucks, and trailers from rural Maine to urban L.A. He also has multiple vehicles and a flexible schedule, so you can count on his pledge to be your holiday chauffeur. An airport trip at dawn? Christmas shopping in terrible traffic? A designated driver on New Year's Eve? He'll take the top five bids for anytime, anywhere within the Tampa Bay area from Nov. 27 through Jan. 2.

Steve Bertoni, 8 pm

Steve, our new youth minister, will take a half-dozen high schoolers out to Bloomingdale Pizza and then in a stylish limousine for a night of bowling and fun at The Alley.

Chris Lewis, 8:10 pm

Chris feels it's his duty to enlist two other guys in a day of eating, drinking, riding, and shooting. Call it CME, for Continuing Male Education. An ex-SWAT instructor will offer lessons before you try a wide variety of weapons at a local gun range. At American Pie Pizza Co. you'll learn to toss dough before considering a pizza-and-beer challenge. At Beef O'Brady's, you'll learn to cook wings and build burgers like a pro before another challenge. Finish the day riding with local law enforcement, or opt for a manly nap!

When your hunting time is over, all scavengers will be rounded up for refreshments and the sharing of your treasures.
